God Is Dead | Currie Ron Jr | download

Ron Currie, Jr., clearly tuned into this logic, kills off God in the first chapter of his debut novel God Is Dead. This single act sets the premise for a book that is at once imaginatively twisted, darkly comic, and offensively thought-provoking.

Ron Currie, Jr. : God is Dead : Book Review

God dies a horrible and humble (and perhaps all-too-appropriate) death in the first chapter of this unique collection of linked stories by Ron Currie, Jr. The fallout from His demise might be logical, but it is far from predictable. "God Is Dead" is not some heavy meditation on theology.

God Is Dead: Currie Jr., Ron: 0884637733186: Books - Amazon.ca

In God is Dead , Ron Currie combines the satirical prescience of Jonathan Swift, the dark appeal of Chuck Palaniuk and the provocative enquiry of Kurt Vonnegut. At the same time, God is Dead is truly - and terrifyingly - original; blasphemous and heretical, it's an exceptional debut and a remarkable read.
